Locate London's hidden gem

Woodberry Down is in the London Borough of Hackney, close to several other neighbourhoods worth discovering for their own distinctive character. There's Stoke Newington, which has its own large park, Clissold Park, and a great range of bars and restaurants. Finsbury Park, as the name suggests, also has a park which plays host to many large gatherings throughout the year: music festivals, fun runs, family and charity events.

Victoria Park is yet another wonderful open space, as is London Fields, which has an Olympic-size outdoor pool.

Islington is a little more traditional, full of places to eat and drink, boutiques and antique dealers, and home to the highly respected Almeida Theatre.

Find a new serenity

It's a fact. Living near water is soothing, and can make us feel less stressed, and even more creative. At Woodberry Down you can take a break from staring at your screen and venture out to gaze over the 42 acres of open water in two reservoirs.

PERFECTLY

Woodberry Down is one of Berkeley's most successful placemaking projects, one that has transformed 64 acres of land into a sustainable and beautiful new place, and won several prestigious awards.

The focus has always been on integrating its vibrant community with nature, with an overarching commitment to conserving energy and protecting the environment.

Woodberry Down, where Berkeley works in partnership with the London Wildlife Trust, is the perfect expression of this vision. It is a habitat where birds and wildlife of many species can co-exist with visitors in perfect serenity.

Just around the corner

Hawker House couldn't be more conveniently located, close to the Zer Café and Juice Bar, Coal House Café, Sublime Italian restaurant, Naturalist pub, 215 Hackney and Simply Organique food store. Woodberry Down also has a health centre, two schools, an academy, post office, fruit and veg store, florist, fitness studio and dry cleaner.

A people kind of place

P

Festivals, fun days and outdoor screenings run throughout the year, giving Woodberry Down residents the opportunity to get to know one another. It's a flourishing community, where people enjoy being together.

Join a new social network

The social hub of Woodberry Down is The Redmond Community Centre, a beautiful, light-drenched modern building which offers a programme of activities including yoga, creative arts, and cookery classes. It also houses a library and the space can be hired for private events. It's a true community asset.

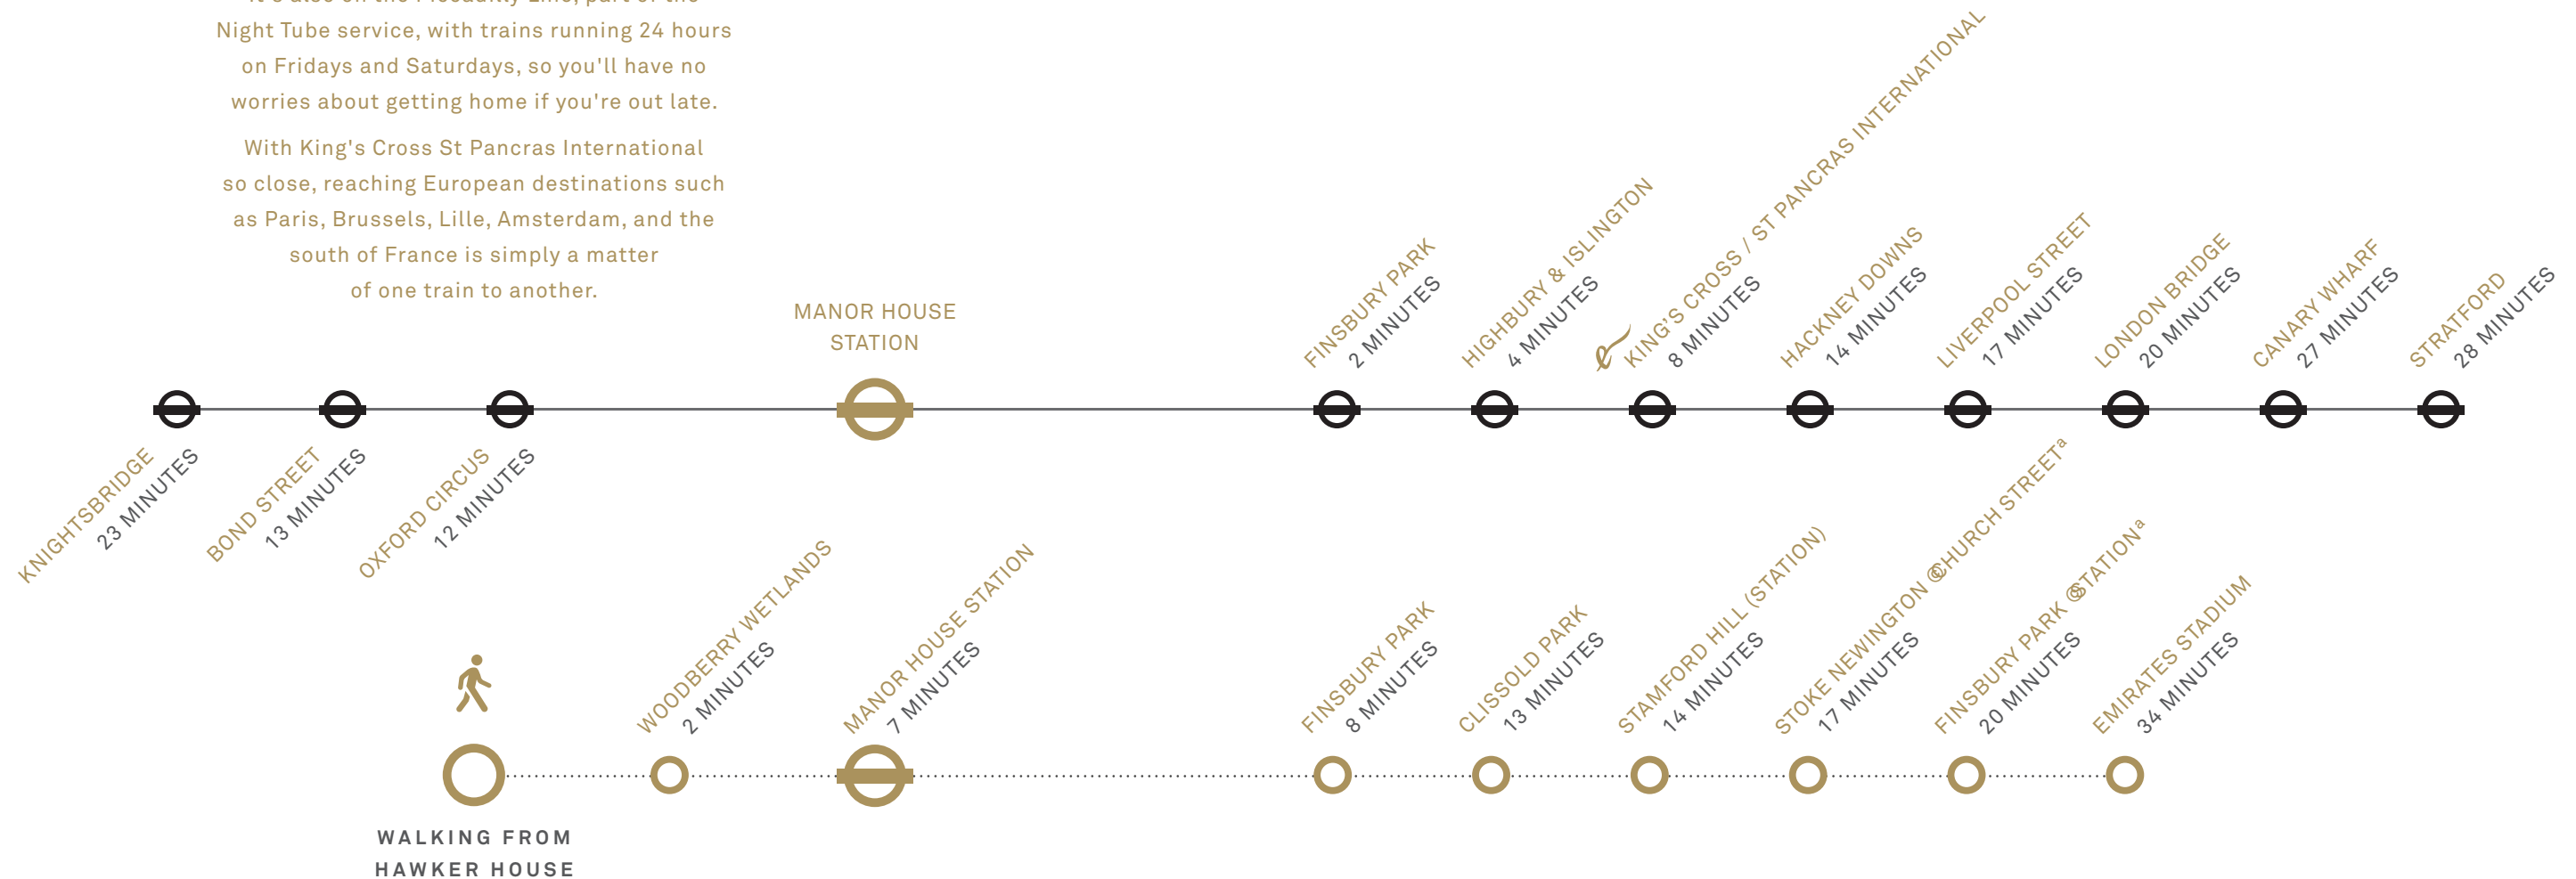

GOING PLACES

Walk, tube, rail, bus, bike; London travels in many different ways and most are easily accessible from Hawker House.

Manor House within Zone 2 is the station nearest to Woodberry Down, and is just a 7 minute walk from Hawker House. From there it's only 8 minutes to King's Cross, 15 minutes to the West End and 20 minutes to the City by tube.

It's also on the Piccadilly Line, part of the Night Tube service, with trains running 24 hours on Fridays and Saturdays, so you'll have no worries about getting home if you're out late.

With King's Cross St Pancras International so close, reaching European destinations such as Paris, Brussels, Lille, Amsterdam, and the south of France is simply a matter of one train to another.

The grand old buildings have come back to life, repurposed and revitalised. King's Cross is a fantastic success story of designer boutiques, restaurants, bars, an amazing public square, work spaces, and a new campus for the University of the Arts London.

Eurostar starts here

One reason for the resurgence of the area is that it is the stepping-off point for mainland Europe via Eurostar, from King's Cross St Pancras International. You could have breakfast in Granary Square and lunch in Paris.

Distance : 4.3 miles

Granary Square

Away from the traffic, Granary Square is a sublime spot for al fresco drinks or roof top dining. Unexpected parks, indoor and outdoor art, canalside walks and gardens, musical performances and the famous fountains all go towards making King's Cross a place like no other. You really have to see it.

Distance : 4.0 miles

Coal Drops Yard

Shops you won't find in Bond Street. Fashion brands you love, and some worth discovering. Amazing restaurants with super inventive chefs. Real records, real books. Things to beautify your home at Tom Dixon, or your body, from Aussie brand Aesop. Coal Drops Yard is a destination within a destination.

Distance : 4.0 miles

The Hackney Empire

Stunning former music hall with a grand interior, showcasing drama, comedy and opera, as well as offering training courses for those who want to work in the creative sector.

The original people's park opened its gates in 1845 and remains a glorious community asset with many awards to its name. The lakes, boating pond, pagoda, tennis courts and regular outdoor events are just some of the reasons to visit.

EAT, DRINK,

Drake and Morgan

Great cocktails, small plates, salads, burgers and sizzling dishes from the grill are on the menu. Eat and drink outside – they'll even bring you a blanket if the evening gets chilly.

Hicce

The food here isn't just cooked – it's wood fired, steamed, smoked and pickled, with chef Pip Lacey supplying the inspiration. The sunset views are said to be some of the best in London.

DANCE

Just a small selection of the unique and eclectic venues to be found in King's Cross and Hackney.

Lina in Piazza

Italian al fresco dining brought to you by Lina Stores, the long-established Soho deli which has a new branch in King's Cross. Fresh home-made pasta is the speciality.

Silo

An intriguing restaurant in a Hackney Wick warehouse, whose chef has an innovative zero-waste approach to cooking. The mainly vegetarian menu includes interesting items such as sweetshop beetroot, sea buckthorn and pirate salt toffee ice cream.

People's Park Tavern

A great pub in the heart of lovely Victoria Park, with a secret garden, on-site brewery, pop-up cocktail bar and BBQ kitchen.

The Coal Office

Buzzy rooftop venue where customers share plates of Mediterranean, North African and Middle Eastern delicacies over drinks.

Casa and Plaza Pastor

More open-top dining, this time with Mexican flavours and a side order of live music. Their tequila and mescal-based cocktails will definitely put you in the right mood.

Parillian

Spanish outdoor terrace restaurant and bar with celebrated Barrafina chef Angel Zapata Martin directing operations. You cook your own food at the table on a 'parilla', a mini charcoal grill.

Night Tales

Enormous club space under the railway arches, with one of the biggest covered terraces around. Regular guest spots from DJs and live performers.

Caravan

The first eatery to open in the new King's Cross, and very popular for all-day dining, breakfasts and superb coffee.

Vermuteria

Delightful café-bar where the signature drinks are spritzers and vermouths – hence the name. Tapas-style food provides exactly the right accompaniment.

Arabica

Middle Eastern dishes served in convivial sharing-size portions – think hummus, halloumi and smoked aubergine, all to be scooped up with hot flatbreads.

Love affair with London

London is a city for work, play, enterprise, art, ideas, history, music, theatre, food and tech. It's fast, busy, but always magnetic. This is why, for centuries, people from all over the world have wanted to reach London, live in London and make it in London. It's constantly changing, but eternal.

Change means that there are now two areas within easy reach of Woodberry Down where some of the world's biggest tech companies are making their presence felt: King's Cross and Old Street, aka Silicon Roundabout.

Facebook

The social media empire has signed up to take 611,000 sq ft of office space in three buildings at King's Cross.

Google

Their new HQ skyscraper, taller than The Shard, means that the tech giant will have three office buildings in King's Cross.

YouTube

YouTube 'Space' in the heart of King's Cross, is a 20,000 sq ft creative hub where users have free access to equipment and technology.

Samsung

At the Samsung KX experience space in Coal Drops Yard, visitors immerse themselves in culture, innovation and learning, powered by Samsung technology.

Microsoft

Microsoft Reactor, in the heart of Tech City, is where developers learn, connect and build. Training, networking, hackathons, events and meetings are all part of the daily life there.

Adobe

The global tech brand has recently taken three floors of the awesome White Collar Factory right on Silicon Roundabout.

Berkeley Homes offers high quality products and services. Their vision of the development is sustainable, and they are competent when it comes to the whole package of the purchase, in terms of the location, the design, the service and the management. I have already recommended my friends to buy from them!

I want to say a big 'Thank you' to Berkeley Homes. They have managed to keep the whole purchase smooth during Covid, which needs a lot of effort and skills.

PARTNERSHIP & COLLABORATION

A vibrant neighbourhood for north London: Woodberry Down in Hackney is one of the Capital's largest estate regeneration projects providing placemaking, social and economic change on an inspiring scale.

We have to create real communities. Not just homes, but beautiful places with the amenities and green open spaces that bring people together. We have to talk to people, listen to everyone, and ensure we're providing the facilities they really need and care about most.

If we keep the focus on people, then housing offers so much more than just shelter. It becomes a powerful force for good.

Berkeley Group

The concepts of placemaking and people sit at the heart of the 30-year development project, which on completion will see 1,890 existing homes replaced by over 5,500 new build apartments (of which 41% will be affordable). Of the 2,016 we have delivered to date, 808 have been affordable with a further 298 currently under construction.

The long-term transformation can be attributed to the effective collaboration between the four main delivery partners:

- Hackney Council
- Notting Hill Genesis Housing Association
- Berkeley Homes
- Woodberry Down Community Organisation (WDCO) a democratically elected body for all residents and retailers on the WD estate

Woodberry Down is a mixed, balanced and integrated community. The development is tenure blind which means that it is extremely difficult to tell the difference between the private and affordable housing.

High quality amenities such as two schools, an academy and a community centre, as well as shops for a range of budgets, continue to be provided. In addition, there are 2.61 acres of new parkland – awarded a prestigious Green Flag in 2016/17. All are fundamental partnership objectives with one goal in mind: to make Woodberry Down a successful new London district for existing residents and new homebuyers alike.

Manor House Development Trust (MHDT) is also a key player in Woodberry Down. This award-winning, charitable social enterprise funded annually by Notting Hill Genesis and Hackney Council drives forward economic and social regeneration through building community resilience and sustained empowerment to secure Woodberry Down's long-term future.

Thanks to the efforts of all involved in the regeneration project, Woodberry Down has become a thriving, sociable place to live. Well attended events such as the annual Hidden River Festival have become a much loved fixture in the area's community calendar, while the nature reserve provides a gorgeous waterside setting for the new homes, in addition to attracting a new wave of visitors to Woodberry Down.

A people-centred approach

We want to create places that people will love as their own. Places that inspire a sense of pride, belonging and community spirit.

This can only be achieved through listening to people and putting their wellbeing at the heart of everything we do. We have to show care, passion and attention to detail, day after day.

When we approach development in this way, local people become our partners. They bring their own energy and ideas, and they turn a place into a real community.

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

MAYOR OF LONDON

DESIGNED FOR

LIFE

At Berkeley, we are committed to creating great places where people love to live, work and relax. Where the homes are light-filled, adaptable and finished to very high standards. Where carefully planned public areas enhance wellbeing and quality of life for residents and visitors. Where people feel a sense of community.

Customers drive all our decisions

We achieve that by putting our customers at the heart of everything we do. First, we strive to understand what our customers want and need – well-built homes, in a pleasant and safe neighbourhood, with plenty of amenities and good transport connections. Then we apply that understanding to all our planning and design decisions.

And for every new development, we challenge ourselves to go further, to improve and innovate, ensuring we satisfy the real needs of our customers in inspiring and sustainable ways.

Quality first to last

Quality is the defining characteristic of Berkeley developments, right down to the very last detail. We choose our locations, style of homes, construction practices, materials and specifications with great care. When you buy a new home from Berkeley you can be safe in the knowledge that it is built to high standards of design and quality, has low environmental impact and that you will receive a professional, efficient and helpful service from us. For extra peace of mind, all new properties come with a 10-year build warranty.

Green living

For Berkeley, sustainability isn't simply the latest buzzword. We are committed to creating a better environment within our developments and in the areas that surround them. That's why we build on brownfield sites whenever we can, bringing new life to disused and unloved spaces. We take care to protect the natural environment and enhance biodiversity. All our homes are designed to reduce water and energy consumption, and to enable residents to recycle waste.

Choice and diversity

No two Berkeley customers are the same, so we aim to offer a wide choice of property location, size and type. From central London to major towns and cities; from market towns to rural villages, countryside to the coast – we build in locations our customers love. And whatever home you are looking for, whether that's a city penthouse, a modern studio apartment or traditional family home, you will find the perfect fit for your lifestyle.

Commitment to the future

When we plan a development, we take a long-term view of how the community we create can thrive in years to come. Our aim is to permanently enhance the neighbourhoods in which they are located, through intelligent design, quality landscaping, sympathetic architecture or restoration, and high standards of sustainability. We don't just build for today; we build for the future too.

People, planet, prosperity

Sustainability is fundamental to Berkeley's ethos. In simple terms, we want to ensure the long-term health, wellbeing and prosperity of people and the planet. There are a range of ways we are managing and minimising the environmental impact of our operations and delivery of homes and communities. These are the initiatives we have implemented at Woodberry Down.

Nature and biodiversity

Parkland, trees, flowers, green roofs, ponds, hedges, gardens – these are the fundamentals of a thriving natural environment that can be enjoyed by everyone, even in the heart of the city. They are all part of our commitment to net biodiversity gain on our developments. Within and around Woodberry Down, we have created natural habitats that encourage wildlife to flourish. We are working with Murdoch Wickham to engage residents in the natural landscapes that we have created.

Waste and recycling

We actively encourage all residents to reduce their waste wherever possible. In addition to external recycling bins, we provide integrated recycling bins in kitchens to make it easier to separate and recycle waste.

Water efficiency

Our homes are designed to high water efficiency standards and are fitted with dual flush WCs, and low-flow taps and showerheads which use less water without compromising convenience and comfort. We also suggest simple steps to reduce water consumption, such as not leaving taps running unnecessarily.

Energy efficiency

Efficient use of electricity and gas helps to lower fuel bills and reduces carbon emissions. Our homes have been designed to use less energy than a standard home. They have enhanced levels of thermal insulation and airtightness. All lighting is low energy and kitchen appliances are minimum A rated or above.

Noise reduction

We can't eliminate noise, but we consider the impact of noise in the design of our homes. We consider external noise, such as from nearby roads, and internal noise including the transfer between rooms and floors. We incorporate measures to reduce the different types of noise wherever possible to create a quieter environment.

Clean air

It is hard to avoid polluted air, particularly in our cities. Throughout Woodberry Down we have planted trees, shrubs and flower beds to help create a cleaner air environment.

Sustainable transport

We provide bike stores and car charging points to encourage the use of sustainable methods of transport, to help reduce air pollution around the development and the wider area. These active methods of transport also help to encourage healthier lifestyles.

Stewardship

Maintaining our communal open spaces and facilities in perpetuity is an important benefit to the whole community. We work with managing agents and residents to ensure the development remains in pristine condition.

Future-proof design

From the early stages of design, we assess how our homes will stand up to the future effects of climate change, such as how they will be affected by higher summer temperatures, periods of drought, or more extreme rainfall. We are constantly researching how we can ensure our homes and developments are more resilient to these extremes to understand what new innovative technologies we should use in our future designs.
